75. [REDACTED]

76. At all relevant times herein, the defendants were on duty and acting within the scope of their employment.

77. At all relevant times herein, each of the individual defendants participated directly in the detention and arrest of plaintiff.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(State and Federal Law False Arrest Against All Defendants)

78. Plaintiffs repeat the preceding allegations as though stated fully herein.

79. The Defendants jointly and severally, as outlined in the preceding paragraphs, without any warrant, order, or other legal process and without any legal right, wrongfully and unlawfully arrested/detained Plaintiff, restrained him and His liberty, and then took Him into custody and confined Him for approximately 26 plus hours for each incident.

80. Defendants intentionally confined Plaintiff without His consent.

81. The confinement was not otherwise privileged by law.

82. At all times, the Plaintiffs were conscious of their confinement.

83. Defendants detained and arrested Plaintiff without any reasonable suspicion that Plaintiff committed or was about to commit any crime.

84. Defendants detained and arrested Plaintiff without probable cause to believe that Plaintiff committed or was about to commit any crime.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(State Law Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention, and Supervision Claim Against the Municipal Defendant)

85. Plaintiffs repeat the preceding allegations as though stated fully herein.

86. The municipal defendant owed a duty of care to plaintiffs to prevent the conduct alleged, because under the same or similar circumstances a reasonable, prudent, and careful person should have anticipated that injuries to plaintiffs, or other people similarly situated, would probably result from the foregoing conduct.

87. Upon information and belief, the individual defendants were unfit and incompetent for their positions or were otherwise likely to falsely arrest civilians and engage in similar misconduct.

88. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York knew or should have known through the exercise of reasonable diligence that the individual defendants were likely to falsely arrest Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals..

89. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York's negligence in screening, hiring, training, disciplining, supervising, and retaining these defendants proximately caused each of plaintiffs' injuries.

90. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiffs sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff requests that this Court:

- (a) Award compensatory damages against the defendants, jointly and severally;
- (b) Award punitive damages against the individual defendants, jointly and severally;
- (c) Award costs of this action to the plaintiff;
- (d) Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

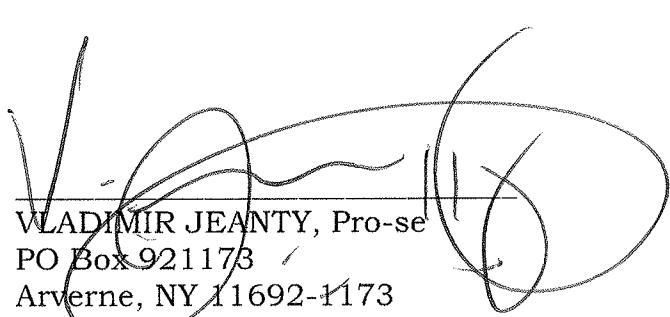

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands a jury trial.
